

Peacemaking Circles

The Fundamentals

An empowering and insightful 2 day training, led by acclaimed international facilitator Dr. Evelyn Zellerer

This experiential training will provide you with the opportunity to learn, explore and experience the fundamentals of Peacemaking Circles, including:

- The Foundation and Invitation of Circles
- Circle Structure and Stages
- Practical Applications
- Facilitation Skills

Participants will gain knowledge, insight and practical tools useful for their personal and professional lives.

As this is an experiential workshop, the number of places is limited. You must register in advance.

EVENT INVITATION

DATE	February 20 & 21, 2016
LOCATION	Vancouver, BC, Canada
TIME	9:00 am to 5:30 pm
FACILITATOR	Dr. Evelyn Zellerer
COST	$280

To register click here: Join the Circle

Or go to <http://peaceofthecircle.com/training/>
Further details provided upon registration.

Circles are a structured yet flexible approach for communication and creating change. The Circle process is used for many purposes, including dialogue, strategic planning, conflict resolution, healing and community building.

Circles are used in a variety of settings such as schools, workplaces and the justice system. They are implemented with all ages, from children to the elderly, and can transform disagreements as well as serious crimes of violence.

For more information visit www.peaceofthecircle.com

Dr. Evelyn Zellerer is a highly sought after international facilitator, trainer, keynote speaker and consultant, with over 20 years experience working with schools, police, prisons, government, organizations, communities and families. Evelyn is a Professor of Criminology at Kwantlen Polytechnic University, and is the Founder/ Director of Peace of the Circle.